

Georgian Door and Surround with Carved Overmantel

An elegant Georgian six panelled door with eared surround and elaborately carved over mantle. The symmetrical design and relatively basic frame is in contrast to the rich embellishment and detail given to the broken scroll topped pediment. Held within the pediment is a beautifully carved basket of flowers. From the underside is suspended an ornately carved garland of flowers and under that a richly carved panel. Made from soft wood this stunning surround has been painted in a heritage green.
